

Looking for fun activities to do with your little ones?

Write Your Own Lullaby!

Join a six-session, music class where you'll create your own special song with professional musicians and discover new and fun ways to sing, move, and play together during family time. Music and play promote self-care and your child's development—come see how in these fun and interactive online sessions. Ideal for children 18 months - 3 years.

In-person welcome session for all families - Sat. May 20, 11AM and 2PM - then choose:

Wednesday Evening Group at 6PM: Online sessions beginning May 24 or June 21

Saturday Morning Group at 10AM: Online sessions beginning May 27 or June 24

In-person reflection session for all families - Sat. July 22, 11AM and 2PM

$75 Visa card will be offered to all families who complete the program

To get more information and sign up, contact Nathan at Nathan@musicopia.net or call/text 215-268-6255

Lead support for the Lullaby Project in Philadelphia is provided by the William Penn Foundation.

Lead support for the Lullaby Project is provided by Nicola and Beatrice Bulgari, The ELMA Music Foundation (U.S.), and an anonymous donor.

Major funding is provided by Ameriprise Financial, MetLife Foundation, and Stavros Niarchos Foundation (SNF).

Additional support has been provided by JMCMRJ Sorrell Foundation and Mary Anne Huntsman Morgan and The Huntsman Foundation.

Public support has been provided by the NYC Health+Hospitals Arts in Medicine Department, with support from the Laurie M. Tisch Illumination Fund, and the Department of Correction in partnership with the Office of the Manhattan Borough President.

The Weill Music Institute's programs are made available to a nationwide audience, in part, by an endowment grant from the Citi Foundation.

carnegiehall.org/lullaby